“ Aunt Jay was a Beautiful lady, I loved seeing her. She was always smiling, she had such a glow about her. I will never forget when she came to visit us, we always knew when Aunt Jay was coming down the stairs, because she slid down the stairs and made a very loud noise, a few choice words as well. So sorry I can not be there, I wanted to come so bad, It did not work out my way, but I know she is in a better place and she is not in any pain.

Go rest now precious one,
Your life in eternity has just begun.
Now you can walk, your heart is brand
new.
All of heaven is now in your view.

Look all around, it's all in your sight,
There will never be another dark night.
Flowers and jewels, the street of pure gold, and all of the things that have been told.

I can just imagine the smile on your face as you walk all around in that beautiful place.
Greeting our loved ones as you walk along, while singing heaven's most beautiful song.

This is so very hard, but it will all be okay, it isn't goodbye, we'll see you one day.
We love you and we'll miss you and at times it will be tough, but as with everything, God's grace will be enough

I love you Aunt Jay!! You will be missed by all. I love all of you and my prayers and thoughts are with you in your time of sorrow. As time passes it will get a little easier each and every day, the pain will ease and you will smile instead of cry, hold on to the memories
those are the best. I love you all and I miss each and every one of you. My thoughts and prayers are with you always. Love you!!! Pam

“ So sorry for your loss....I didn't really remember her..but I know she was a good lady just by what everyone says of her.Saddened by the fact I lived so close to her and didn't realize it until after her passing. I would have loved to meet her and have my family meet her.
