“ Mother,

No one could ever ask for the greatest mother! You have been such an inspiration to several, wonderful wife, mother, and friend! We will miss you so much and tears will flow. I'm so happy you are no longer hurting and get to spend time with your other babies ... dance with the angels, celebrate Jesus birthday, ask all the questions of God we wanted to know.

I can't tell you how much I will miss our shopping, talks, and rides. You are truly the best ever .. and I'm focusing on the things you have taught me and not the loss of someone I love so dearly.

I reflect back on the talks we have had, music we loved to listen to, and the advice you gave me. I will miss this but know you loved me, as well as your family. Even today, it seems you are still with us and it is comforting. I hope we did you justice and you are proud of the service. Stephanie and Eric miss you so much but the great-grandkids really miss you and talk of you everyday.

There is not a day that goes by that I do not talk or wish to see you face to face. Cancer is such an awful disease to have to fight but you gave the best ever. It did NOT beat you ... you fought to the last breath your body could fight.

I pray for a cure for all cancer, as it is the worst fight a person has to do.

I LOVE you and miss you so very much!

All of my love Lisa

“ To all the Hamby family:

Jane was a very dear friend and she will very much be missed. We (some of us ladies) always enjoyed going over to her house and playing games with her, (skip-bo and dominoes.) She was a joy to be around.
